"It's not too difficult," said the speaker's colleague, Mr. Boswell. "All we've got to do is to bring it up as a surprise on the convention. Some of the old crowd themselves will be swept along with us when we make our nomination, and you want to stuff your ears with cotton. You see, all we need to do is to pass the word quietly among the Halloway people and the shabby McCune people. Rod may get wind of it, but you can't fix men in this district against us when they know what we mean to do now. On the first ballot we'll give Halloway every vote he'd have got if he'd run against McCune alone. It will help him to understand how things were afterward. On the second ballot—why, we nominate. Of course it can't be helped that Halloway has to be kept in the dark, too, but he's got to be."

"There's no danger," said Warren Smith. "Kedge Halloway is honest, but I believe he's selfish enough to disturb his best friend's deathbed for his own ends. It's not unlikely that he will get nervous toward the last and be telegraphing Harkless to have himself carried on a cot to the convention to save him. That wouldn't do at all, of course."

The strongest castle could be reduced by siege if the garrison could be starved out. The strongest body has to give up the fight when starvation weakens it. There are more deaths from starvation than the world dreams of. When the stomach is diseased and the food eaten is not digested and assimilated, then the strength of the body begins to fail because of lack of nutrition, and the weak body falls an easy victim to the microbes of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores physical strength in the only possible way, by enabling the assimilation of the nutrition contained in food.

"I was sick for over three years with a complication of stomach troubles," writes Mr. John H. Castana, residing at 242 Arch St., Chicago, Illinois. "I had tried every good physician I knew of, as well as many patent medicines, but received only temporary relief. One day a friend recommended our 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I immediately procured some and began its use. Commenced to gain the first week, and after I had taken only one bottle I could eat as well as any one without experiencing ill effects. I took five bottles, and to-day am happy to announce that I am as well and healthy as any one could be. I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains. You lose. Therefore accept no substitute for the "Golden Medical Discovery."

And Miss Sherwood thinks maybe there'd be less danger if we set the convention a little ahead of the day appointed. It's dangerous, because it shortens our time, but we can fix it for three days before the day we'd settled on, and that will bring it to Sept. 7."

"It's a great plan," said Mr. Bence, who was an oratorical gentleman. He thrust one hand in his breast, raised the other toward heaven and continued, "For the name of Harkless shall!"

"Wait a minute," said Keating. "I'd like to hear from the Herald about its policy. If Miss Sherwood will tell us."

"Yes, indeed," she answered. "It will be very simple. Don't you think there

"Here's to our candidate!" is only one course to pursue? We will advocate no one very energetically, but we will print as much of the truth about Mr. McCune as we can, with delicacy and honor, in this case; but as I understand it the work is almost all to be done among the delegates. We shall not mention our plan at all, and we will convince that Mr. Harkless shall not receive his copy of the paper containing the notice of the change of date, and I think the chance of his seeing it in any Roten paper may be avoided. That is all, I think."

"Thank you," said Keating. "That is certainly the course to follow."

Every one nodded or acquiesced in words, and Keating and Bence came over to Helen and engaged her in conversation. The others began to look about for their hats, vaguely preparing to leave.

"Wait a minute," said the judge. "There's no train due just now." And Minnie appeared in the doorway with a big pitcher of crab apple cider, rich and amber hued, sparkling, cold and redolent of the sweet smelling orchard where it was born. Behind Miss Briscoe came Mildy Upton with glasses and a fat, shaking, four storied jelly cake on a second tray. The judge passed his cigars around, and the gentlemen took them dutifully, then hesitatingly held them in their fingers and glanced at the ladies, uncertain of permission. "Let me get you some matches," Helen said quickly, and found a box on the table and handed them to Keating. Every one sat beaming, and fragrant veils of smoke soon draped the room.

"Why do you call her 'Miss Sherwood'?" Boswell whispered in Keating's ear.

"That's her name."

"Ain't she the daughter of that old fellow over there by the window? Ain't her name Fisbee?"

"No; she's his daughter, but her legal name's Sherwood. She's an adoptee."

"Great Scott! I know all about that. I'd like to know if there's a man, woman or child in this part of the country that doesn't. I guess it won't be Fisbee or Sherwood either very long. She can easily get a new name, that lady. And if she took a fancy to Boswell, why, I'm a back!"

"I expect she won't take a fancy to Boswell very early," said Keating.

"Go way," returned Mr. Boswell.

"What do you want to say that for? Can't you hear for anybody to be happy a minute or two now and then?"

Warren Smith approached Helen and inquired if it would be asking too much if they petitioned her for some music, and she went to the piano and sang some dainty songs for them, with a quaint suggestion of the dialect. Two or three old fashioned negro melodies of Foster, followed by some rollicking modern imitations, with the movement and spirit of a tin shop falling down a flight of stairs. Her audience listened in delight from the first. But the latter songs quite overcame them with pleasure and admiration, and before she finished every head in the room was jogging from side to side and forward and back in time to the music, while every foot shuffled the measures on the carpet.

When the gentlemen from out of town discovered that it was time to leave if they meant to catch their train Helen called to them to wait, and they gathered around her.

"Just one second," she said. And she poured all the glasses full to the brim. Then, as she stood in the center of the circle they made around her, she said:

"Before you go shan't we pledge each other to our success in this good home grown Indiana cider that leaves our heads clear and our arms strong? If you will—then—"

She began to blush furiously, and her voice trembled, but she lifted the glass high over her head and cried bravely, "Here's to our candidate!"

The big men, towering over her, threw back their heads and quaffed the gentle liquor to the last drop. Then they sent up the first shout of the campaign and cheered till the rafters rang.

"My friends," said Mr. Keating as he and Boswell and the men from Gaines drove away from the brick house—"My friends, here is where I begin the warmest hustling I ever did. Now, I guess we all think this is a great plan."

"It is a glorious idea," said Mr. Bence. "The name of Harkless!"

Keating drowned the oratory: "But that isn't all. That little girl wants it to succeed, and that settles it. He goes."

That night Mr. Parker, at work in the printing office, perceived the figure of Mr. Tipworthy beckoning him mysteriously from the pavement.

"What's the matter, Buddie?"

"Listen. She's singin' over her work."

Parker stepped outside. On the pavement people had stopped to listen. They stood in the shadow, looking up with parted lips at the open, lighted windows whence came a clear, soft, reaching voice, lifted ineffably in song. Now it swelled louder unconsciously; now its volume was more slender, and it melted liquidly into the night; again it trembled and rose and dwelt in the ear, strong and pure, and hearing it you sighed with unknown longings. It was the "Angels' Serenade."

Bud Tipworthy's sister, Cynthia, was with him, and Parker saw that she turned from the window and that she was crying quietly. She put her hand on the boy's shoulder and patted it with a forlorn gesture which to the foreman's eye was as graceful as it was sad. He moved closer to Bud, and his big hand fell on Cynthia's brother's other shoulder as he realized that red hair could look pretty sometimes, and he wondered why the editor's singing made Cynthia cry, and at the same time he decided to be mighty good to Bud henceforth. The spell of night and song was on him; that and something more, for it is a strange, inexplicable fact that the most practical chief ever known to the Herald had a singularly sentimental influence over her subordinates from the moment of her arrival. Under Harkless' domination there had been no more steadfast bachelors in Carlow than Ross Schofield and Caleb Parker, and, like timorous youths in a graveyard, daring and mocking the ghosts in order to assuage their own fears, they had so gibed and jeered at the married state that there was talk of urging the minister to preach at them, but now let it be recorded that at the moment Caleb laid his hand on Bud's other shoulder his associate, Mr. Schofield, was enjoying a walk in the far end of town with a widow, and it is not to be doubted that Mr. Tipworthy's heart also was no longer in his possession, though, as it was after 8 o'clock, the damsel of his desire had probably long since retired to her couch.

For a faint light on the cause of these spells we must turn to a comment made by the invaluable Mr. Martin some time afterward. Referring to the lady to whose voice he was now listening in silence, which shows how great the enthralment of her voice was, he said, "When you saw her or heard her or managed to be around anywhere she was, why, if you couldn't git up no hope of marryin' her you wanted to marry somebody."

Mr. Lige Willetts, riding idly by, drew rein in front of the lighted windows and listened with the others. Presently he leaned from his horse and whispered to a man near him, "I know that song."

"Do you?" whispered the other.

"Yes. He and I heard her sing it the night he was shot. We stood outside Briscoe's and listened."

"So?"

"It's a seraphic song," he said, "continued Lige."

"No!" exclaimed his friend. Then, shaking his head, he sighed, "Well, it's mighty sweet."

The song was suddenly woven into laughter in the unseen chamber, and the lights in the windows went out, and a small lady and a tall lady and a thin old man, all three laughing and talking happily, came down and drove off in the Briscoe buckboard. William Todd took his courage between his teeth and the song ringing in his ears, made a desperate resolve to call upon Miss Bardlock that evening in spite of its being a week day, and Caleb Parker gently and stammeringly asked Cynthia if she would wait till he shut up the shop and let him walk home with her and Bud.

Soon the square was quiet as before, and there was naught but peace under the big stars of July.

That day the news had come that Harkless, after weeks of alternate improvement and relapse, hazily lingering in the borderland of shadows, had passed the crucial point and was convalescent. His recovery was assured. But from their first word of him, from the message that he was found and was alive, none of the people of Carlow had really doubted. They are simple country people, and they know that God is good.

CONSERVATISM WINS

Illinois Miners Avoid a Strike at the Last Moment.

Springfield, Ill., April 1.—When matters looked darkest for a settlement of the differences between the coal operators and miners of Illinois, and a strike seemed imminent, the miners gave way and acceded to the ultimatum of the operators.

When the joint session convened yesterday afternoon the miners stated that they had counter proposals to make to the operators, namely, that the miners would waive all concessions made them regarding free oil to day men and free powder, if the operators would rescind their demand for a reduction of three cents from last year's scale in the first district. This the operators refused, and after considerable discussion in which National President John Mitchell defended the miners' position, adjournment was taken until evening.

On reconvening last night the miners stated they were willing to withdraw their demand for last year's scale in the Northern district, and the joint scale committee will arrange minor matters. Thus all danger of a strike has been averted by reason of conservative action by the miners' organization. National President Mitchell and Herman C. Perry, the new president of the state miners' organization, were in conference with the operators for some time last night.

Arbitration is Proposed.

Des Moines, Ia., April 1.—Propositions for a settlement of the strike in the Iowa mines have been submitted by both the operators and miners. Both propose arbitration. The miners propose the question of wages and the scale which is to be arbitrated. The operators propose that the ratification of the Indianapolis scale be the only question arbitrated so the two bodies are still at variance on this point, and the indications point to a continuation of the deadlock.

Situation in Kentucky Unsettled.

Louisville, Ky., April 1.—After having been in conference several days, the Kentucky coal miners and operators adjourned without having reached an agreement concerning the wage scale. The disagreement, however, was not final despite the fact that the present scale expired yesterday. It was decided to defer definite action until Wednesday, April 6, the present scale to continue in effect until that time.

All Right in West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., April 1.—The joint conference of operators and miners of District No. 17 which has been in session here over a week has reached an agreement and signed a scale of wages for the next two years.

BRITISH ADVANCE

Resistance on the Part of the Tibetans Marked by Heavy Fighting.

sion and Is Repulsed.Col. Younghusband's Troops Move

Bite the Dust.

Tuna, British India, April 1.—News has been received of severe fighting, the Tibetans having attacked the British mission under Col. Younghusband. There were two engagements and the Tibetans were repulsed with heavy loss. The British captured the Tibetan camp at Guru.

While the British advance had practically been unopposed, the expedition suffered great hardship from the intense cold, and it was sometimes found impossible to use the Maxim guns and rifles owing to the congel-ing of the oil. The country is of the bleakest, without a sign of vegetation, and the expedition had to face piercing winds and clouds of dust, while there was a heavy fall of snow Wednesday night.

At 8 o'clock yesterday morning a flying column started to reconnoiter the Tibetan camp at Guru, whereupon a general from Lhasa, with a quaint retinue came to interview Col. Younghusband. The general asked the colonel to retire with his mission to Yalung for the purpose of carrying on negotiations, threatening an attack if the mission proceeded. Col. Younghusband replied that negotiations had been proceeding fruitlessly for fifteen years and that retirement was now impossible. The Tibetan general withdrew his troops to endeavor to disperse the Tibetans, blocking the road without firing upon them.

For a time the tactics of the British were successful but after while the attitude of the Tibetan officials convinced Col. McDonald of the necessity of disarming them. The Tibetans numbered about 1,500 and their resistance of the effort to disarm them led to a smart engagement. The situation for a few moments was critical, Col. MacDonald and Col. Younghusband being only a few yards from the advancing Tibetans. Revolvers and bayonets were used and then a rifle was reported to, at which the Tibetans fled, but not before several casualties resulted in the British ranks.

The Tibetans lost heavily owing to the inferiority of their weapons, which were match lock rifles, but they displayed the greatest courage, many of them coming on after they had been seriously wounded. After the action there were heaps of dead, a long trail of dead and wounded extending to the rear.

After a short halt the advance continued. Nearing the Tibetans' camp at Guru, a second action took place in which the artillery played the largest part. Finally the Tibetans retreated over the hills with the exception of about sixty who obstinately held the village which was finally taken by a mounted bayonet charge.

Among the Tibetans killed were the Lhasa general, the military commandant of Phari and Lata and the representative of the golden monastery to whose influence and violent hostility the existing difficulties were largely due.

The Tibetan losses are believed to be over 400, while the British casualties are about a dozen.

The British force returned to Tuna last evening and stated that rifles bearing the Russian Imperial stamp, and Russian ammunition were found on the wounded Tibetan officers.

Political Machine Condemned.

St. Louis, April 1.—The grand jury called some time ago to investigate the alleged assaults perpetrated upon voters during the Democratic primaries on March 12, has made a report, returning indictments against seventeen policemen and John Levin, central committeeman from the twenty-eighth ward, charging them with failing to quell the disturbance. The report also severely criticizes Gov. Dockery for "allowing the St. Louis police department to be used as a political machine."

French Court Says Colombia Has Lost Sovereignty.

Paris, April 1.—The civil tribunal of the Seine, five judges sitting, has pronounced decision in the suit brought by the republic of Colombia and Napoleon Bonaparte Wise to enjoin the transfer of the canal company's property to the United States in accordance with the contract. The court by unanimous decision, dismissed both suits and denied the injunction. It also refused damages against the company on the ground that the company's action has been proper.

The decision expressly holds that Colombia lost sovereignty over the isthmus and the republic of Panama has acquired sovereignty and has recognized and assumed the concessions of the canal company. The decision is a most complete, unequivocal and absolute determination in favor of the company, without any doubt or reservation, and is a complete justification of the action of the company.

Last Obstacle Removed.

Washington, April 1.—President Roosevelt and Attorney General Knox had a conference subsequent to the receipt of the information that the government of Colombia had lost its suit in the French courts against the new Panama canal company, and that now there was no longer any reason for delay in the transfer of the company's concessions and property to the United States. At the conclusion of the interview, Attorney General Knox announced that the action of the French courts had disposed of the last legal obstacle in the way of the transfer of the canal company's property. The dissolution of the Panama canal company, so far as the transfer of the property to this country is concerned, probably will take place in the latter part of April. The payment of the $40,000,000 to the company will be made about that time.

NEW USE FOR DOGS

Igorrotes Will Take All of St. Louis' Supply.

St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—All stray dogs in St. Louis will be served daily to members of the Igorrote and other tribes of Filipinos at the world's fair. Arrangements to this effect have been completed with the officers of the dog pound. The Igorrotes, who at home are head hunters, are very fond of dog meat and they threatened to strike unless served with their favorite flesh. Accordingly, stray dogs, instead of suffering death by asphyxiation, will be slaughtered, dressed and roasted, fried, boiled, grilled or fricasseed to suit the peculiar taste of the Igorrotes.

Settlement Seems Likely.

New York, Mo., April 1.—In view of the fact that J. P. Morgan has arranged to leave for Europe next week, Wall street is inclined to expect an early announcement that some sort of a satisfactory arrangement has been reached between the Union Pacific interests and the Hill-Morgan interests regarding the distribution of the assets of the Northern Securities company.

Details of the Battle at Chong-Ju, Korea.

Seoul, April 1.—There is continuous skirmishing between Ping Yang and Wiju and many Japanese have been killed.

Seoul, April 1.—Detailed reports received here of the engagement of March 28 between Russians and Japanese at Chong Ju, Korea, says the fighting lasted two hours at the end of which the Japanese forced the Russians to retire toward Wiju. Two Russian dead were left on the field, while other bodies were carried off with the column. A Japanese lieutenant named Kno and four privates were killed while Capt. Kurokawa and eleven privates were wounded.

GOOD ADVICE TO NERVOUS WOMEN

"Just let me tell you what Rexall Mucu-Tone did for me," says Mrs. Hess, of Jersey City, N. J.

"For five years I had been growing more and more feeble. I was weak, run down and nervous. Suffered with pain in my back and side constantly and was unable to obtain any relief whatever. It seemed as if my cup of trouble was already full when I was overtaken by catarrhal bronchitis and for five weeks was confined to my bed."

"Nothing seemed to help me and I was in deepest despair when a neighbor advised me to try Mucu-Tone. From the first dose I experienced relief. I succeeded in breaking up the attack completely within twenty-four hours, and at the end of a week I felt like a new woman. Today I am in perfect health; something I have not known for years. I therefore feel safe in advising all women who are nervous and broken down to buy a bottle of Rexall Mucu-Tone and to take it as directed."

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR CONDITION MEANS?

Has anyone ever told you what it means to feel restless?—fidgety?—unsettled?—unable to concentrate yourself on your work?—unable to find pleasure or satisfaction in anything?

Or have you ever given careful thought to it yourself?

Well, sooner or later you will be broken down, weak, dizzy—thoroughly tired of living.

The meaning is that some part of your system has been attacked by catarrh.

One after another the organs become deranged; the liver and kidneys are no longer able to purify the blood and the heart becomes affected. Then the stomach loses its power to properly digest food. Sleeplessness, nervousness, melancholy and despair follow. You grow weak, emaciated, haggard. You have pains in the back, under the shoulder-blades and bearing down pains in the lower abdomen.

And probably through it all you have been told that you are merely run down and need a tonic.

Our confidence in Rexall Mucu-Tone is based on our knowledge of what this remedy has done in thousands of cases. We know that Mucu-Tone is meritorious, scientific, reliable, and we earnestly say to you that if you are not more than satisfied with a trial of this remedy we will promptly and cheerfully refund your money.

Mucu-Tone is one of the famous Rexall remedies and is sold only at our store. Large bottles, 89 cents. Mail orders filled.

Call For Republican Convention.

The Republicans of Jackson county will meet in mass convention in the several townships of the county, on Saturday, April 2nd, 1904, at such time and place as may be selected by the several precinct committees; for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Republican State Convention to be held in the City of Indianapolis, Ind. on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 26th and 27th, 1904. The apportionment of delegates under the rule laid down by the State Committee is "one delegate and one alternate delegate for each 200 votes and for each additional fraction of more than 100 votes cast for Hon. Daniel E. Storms at the November election 1902." Under this rule Jackson county is entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternate delegates and the apportionment to the townships made under this rule (showing also the republican vote cast in each township in 1902.) is as follows:

TOWNSHIP	1902	DELS.	ALT.
Brownstown	244	1	1
Carr	152	1	1
Driftwood	100	1	1
Grassy Fork	88	1	1

Jackson	756	4	4
Owen	141	1	1
Redding	102	1	1
Salt Creek	135	1	1
Vernon	190	1	1
Washington	1	1	1

The republicans of the county are urged to attend these meetings and assist in selecting these delegates.

Secretary.

Township Convention.

The republicans of Jackson township will meet in the city building Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, April 2, 1904, for the purpose of electing four delegates and four alternate delegates to the republican state convention to be held at Indianapolis April 26 and 27.

C. D. BILLINGS,
Township Chairman.

The city council managed to award the contract for removing slops and garbage from the city to the highest bidder. The taxpayers foot the bill.

The republicans of Jackson township meet tomorrow afternoon to elect delegates to the state convention. Meeting will be at the city building at 1:30 o'clock.

The republican city ticket is indeed a good one and it could not have been otherwise for all the men who were candidates are first class citizens and well equipped for the offices for which they were candidates. There was no chance for anything else but a good ticket. And the ticket nominated will be elected May 3.

The city council last night allowed W. T. Branaman $75 for "services as attorney for the city" in December. What litigation did the city have in December in which Mr. Branaman was employed? Was the city a party to any suit in which Mr. Branaman was employed as attorney? In any suit which the city was a party to the suit in which he was employed what right has the city administration to allow him a fee out of the city treasury?

WINNING TICKET NAMED.

Republicans Nominate Strong Men for City Offices.

The republicans of Seymour name a splendid ticket Thursday. It is a good one from top to bottom and it could not have been otherwise for none but good and worthy men were candidates. The vote polled was probably the largest ever polled in a primary in Seymour. The total vote cast was 695. This shows that the republicans are thoroughly interested in the approaching city election, and that they will cast a full vote on May 3.

DIED.

COMBS.—Mrs. Charles Combs, formerly of this city, died at her home in Jeffersonville Thursday evening of erysipelas and blood poison, aged 34 years. She was a sister of James Monroe and Mrs. Thos. W. Whitson and was here only two weeks ago to attend the funeral of Mrs. Monroe. She was a member of the Baptist church here. The remains will be brought here at 3:35 this afternoon and taken to the home of Mrs. Owens on South Chestnut street. Funeral Saturday afternoon conducted by Rev. W. C. Martin.

JAYNE.—Harold Jayne, the eight-year old son of Joseph Jayne and wife, of this city, died Thursday night of diphtheria at the home of Mrs. Jayne's father at Fleming. Funeral and burial Friday afternoon. This is the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Jayne to die of diphtheria this week.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Brakeman Ed Flomerfelt, of Cincinnati, is here for a few days. Conductor M. C. Whitcomb and wife went to Cincinnati this morning. Engineer Daniel Lester, of New Albany, is visiting here for a few days. Brakeman George Childers resumed work this morning after a few days lay off.

The Southern Indiana got repairs made and began running trains through again last evening. Rufus McNeely formerly of the B. & O. S. W. is here from Pueblo, Col. visiting old acquaintances for a few days.

A Love Letter.

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed salve for sores, burns or piles. Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best salve on earth. 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co."

Broke Into His House.

S. Le Quin, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of chronic constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for IT TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

INSTANT RELIEF—Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat—Brazilian Balm, 50 doses 25c.

DeWitt's Witch Salve
For Piles, Burns, Sores.

The primary was well conducted and everything passed off smoothly. From the very first all the candidates conducted their campaigns on a high plane and no bitterness was engendered. When the polls closed at 8 o'clock the candidates and their lieutenants had nothing more to do but to await anxiously for the election boards to complete the work of the day.

The REPUBLICAN office was crowded when the returns began coming in about 9 o'clock and the bulletin board was watched with interest. Everybody was in a good humor and when the returns were all in the winners were warmly congratulated.

The following table shows the vote cast in each ward, the total vote cast for each candidate and the majorities:

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Garbage Contract Awarded to Highest Bidder.

The city council met in regular session last night. Mayor Shields was in the chair. Binder, Heuser, Leroy Miller and Stewart were absent from roll call, but all but Heuser came in later.

After the minutes were read and adopted the following business was transacted:

Huber of the water committee reported on the matter of the request for an extension of the water mains to the McDonald stove factory, recommending that the line be extended to the property line as soon as Mr. McDonald is ready to extend same to the plant.

Adams, of the grade committee, reported that the sewer on Broadway, from Third to the city sewer, was stopped up and needed looking after. Referred to street commissioner.

The light committee reported deductions amounting to $8.12 from the quarterly light bill and recommended that the balance amounting to $1038.13 be paid. So ordered.

The bill of the Seymour Democrat Publishing Company referred to committee on accounts and claims was reported on. The committee recommended that the bill be paid after deducting $12.25, leaving the amount of bill $27.55. Report approved.

The special committee on the matter of better fire equipment was given two weeks more time to complete report. The committee estimates the cost of changing the building for fire equipment at $500, wagon and harness $300, and team $300.

The city attorney reported on the matter of abolishing the office of city judge. He said that the office could be abolished but deemed such action not advisable in which opinion he said all of the Seymour lawyers concurred, they having signed a statement to that effect. His recommendation was agreed to and the effort to legislate Judge Wesner out of office was dropped.

Bids for removing the garbage from the city were opened. William Railg submitted a bid proposing to remove the slops and garbage from the city for a period of ten months for $29.50 per month, agreeing to give bond for the faithful performance of the work.

Peter Largent proposed to remove slops and garbage from the city for a period of nine months for $45 per month. A bond for $100 that he would enter into such a contract accompanied his bid.

The contract was awarded to Peter Largent, the highest bidder. Ahlbrand reported that the Parlor Reclining Chair Company desired to put their office where the Third ward hose house now stands and agreed to move hose house to a favorable place at their own expense. Referred to fire committee.

Numerous matters pertaining to street repairs were brought up by different councilmen and referred to the street commissioner. The heavy rains washed the streets in many places so that immediate repairs are said to be necessary.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

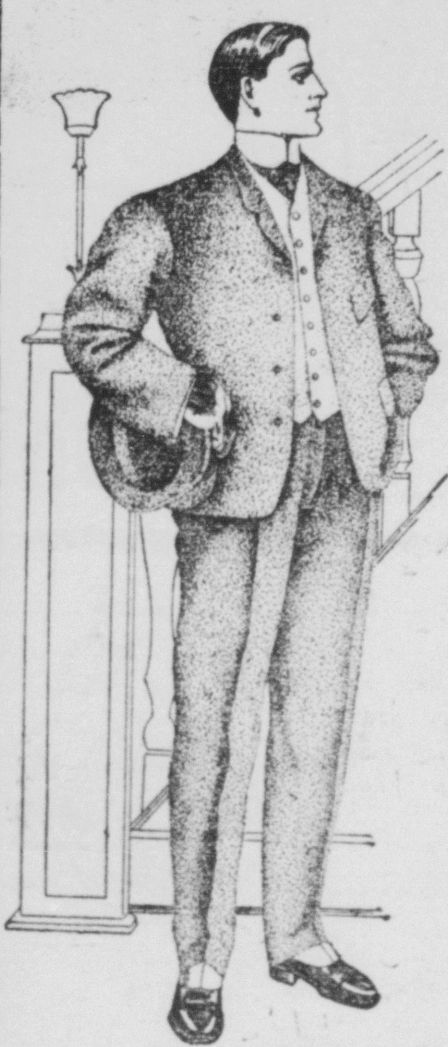

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is a safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, write us, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

If you want a reliable medicine for liver and kidney trouble, stomach disorders. It's guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

VALUABLE INFORMATION.

Given to the People by the W. F. Peter Drug Co.

We want the people of Seymour and vicinity to know that the most valuable and delicious tasting preparation of cod liver oil known to medicine is Vinol.

Vinol contains all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but not a drop of oil to retard its work.

For this reason Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest health restorer and strength creator known to medicine, and we do not believe there is a man, woman or child in Seymour at this season of the year but what Vinol will benefit them.

Vinol creates health and strength for old people, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequaled to create an appetite, and to make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

VETERAN REPUBLICAN.

Jos. I. Irwin Attended the State Convention in 1858.

Joseph I. Irwin, of Columbus, is one of the survivors of the Republican State convention of 1856. Mr. Irwin will probably attend the Republican convention this year in response to the invitation of Chairman Goodrich.

At the time of the organization of the Republican party, Mr. Irwin was active in politics, being a Whig. In 1853 he attended a meeting, or convention, in Indianapolis, at which the question of organizing a new party to be known as the Republican party was discussed. Two years later, when the step was taken and a national party was organized. Mr. Irwin was a delegate to the first convention. All delegates in those days were self appointed, and if a man chose to attend the convention he regarded himself a delegate.

Mr. Irwin has attended nearly all of the State conventions held by the Republicans.

A Cure for Headache.

Any man, woman or child suffering from headache, biliousness or a dull, drowsy feeling should take one or two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers night and morning. These famous little pills are famous because they are a tonic as well as a pill. While they cleanse the system they strengthen and rebuild it by their tonic effect upon the liver and bowels. Sold by W. F. Peter Drug Co., and A. J. Pellens.

Where Satan Sows His Seed, the Wine Glass, Theater, Card Table and Dance.

The revival meetings continue with unabated interest at the Holiness Christian church. Several more have been converted this week and it would seem that the meeting is only just beginning. Last night Mr. Cornell preached on "Ten Scriptural Evidences of a Converted Man" as follows:

1—Peace with God. Rom. 5-1.
2—Does not commit sin. 1 John 3-9.
3—Loves the brethren. 1 John 3-14.
4—Confesses with his mouth. Rom. 10-10.

5—Hath the witness in himself. 1 John 5-10.

6—Led by the Spirit. Rom. 8-14.

7—Has the fruit of the Spirit. Gal. 5:22-23.

8—Love your enemies. Matt. 5:44-45.

9—Keeps Christ's commandments. John 14:15-21.

10—Desires purity. 1 John 3-3.

Mr. Cornell asserted that these evidences entered into the life of every truly converted man, and those who are without these evidences are in danger of losing their souls.

Tonight a great throng will no doubt be present to hear the evangelist preach on the popular amusements of the day, "Where Satan Sows His Seed," the wine glass, theater, card table and dance. Evangelistic services on Saturday night as usual.

Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and today she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by W. F. Peter Drug Co.

MARCH WEATHER AND CROPS.

A Warm, Dark and Very Wet Month.

March, 1904, was very warm, unusually dark and exceedingly wet. The daily average excess of temperature was 3 degrees, the total excess of rainfall was 5 inches and the deficiency in sunshine was great. The prevailing winds were south westerly and usually light, with gales on the 10th, 22nd, and 25th. Cold waves occurred on the 4th and 27th, there were electrical storms on the 2nd, 3rd, 10th, 19th, 22nd, 25th, 26th, 30th and 31st, and hail fell on 3rd and 25th. Rain or snow fell on 16 days, 3 days were clear 8 were partly cloudy and 20 were cloudy. Snow fell to the depth of one inch, the total precipitation was 9.25 inches, and the heaviest rainfall in 24 hours was 2.15 inches on the 26th.

The condition of wheat and grasses was improved by warm rains, and most fruit germs, grape vines and berry canes, were uninjured. The warmest day was the 25th, with a temperature mean of 66 degrees and the coldest was the 15th with a mean of only 28 degrees. The greatest daily range of temperature was 43 degrees and the monthly temperature range was 57 degrees. Floods due to excessive rains during the last decade did considerable damage, but not so much as in some former years. The rise in White river lacked one foot of the high water mark of 1897—the record here. Temperatures: Maximum, 77 degrees on the 31st; minimum, 20 degrees on the 4th, and the monthly mean was 44.4 degrees above zero. Soil too wet for a cultivation and farm operations retarded.

Spectacles and Eye Glasses to suit old and young.

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be a fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality, if it is painful something is wrong. Don't take narcotics to deaden the pain, but remove the cause—perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb displacements, or the development of a tumor. Whatever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and carelessness is the cause of most of the sufferings of women. I believe that if we properly understood the laws of health we would all be well, but if the sick women only knew the truth about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would be saved much suffering and would soon be cured. I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and I am now enjoying the best of health, and am most grateful, and only too pleased to endorse such a great remedy."—MISS JENNIE L. EDWARDS, 604 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

VARIOUS SUBJECTS

Came Up for Heated Discussion in the Halls of Congress.

SENATORS IN A BROIL

Two Western Senators Declare That Each Had Stated That Which Was Not True.

Mr. Hemenway Indignantly Denies Certain Charges Made by Mr. Robinson.

Washington, April 1.—The attention of the senate is being divided between the bill for the repeal of the desert land, the timber and stone and the homestead commutation laws and the postoffice appropriation bill. The repeal bill was taken up only for the purpose of discussion and Mr. Clark (Wyoming) was the principal speaker. He contended the position taken by Mr. Gibson that there have been great frauds in the administration of the land laws in the West. He declared that there is a lobby in Washington in the interest of the repeal bill and engaged in a short colloquy with Mr. Patterson, during which each characterized the statement of the other as untrue. The general debate on the postoffice bill was confined largely to a speech by Mr. McCreary and interruptions by Republican senators. Mr. McCreary charged in the main, that the policy of an early adjournment of congress had been adopted in order to avoid legislation not desired by the Republican leaders.

"Consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill was concluded in the house and the bill was about to be passed when Mr. Sulzer forced a roll call on a motion to commit the bill with instructions to strike out the paragraph appropriating $135,000 for rental of the New York custom house. The vote showed a quorum was not present and adjournment was taken. The right of boards of directors of state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers to retain certain portions of pension money received by the inmates was discussed at length. Mr. Bell, of California, assailed his own state for permitting a canteen to be established in the California state home and charged that the old soldiers were allowed to draw their pension money from the home in most instances only through canteen checks. After extended debate an amendment by Mr. Bell to correct the evils complained of was adopted.

A violent attack on the coast and geodetic survey was made by Mr. Robinson, of Indiana, who charged that scandal attached to that office in connection with the allowances for commutation subsistence. Mr. Hemenway, in charge of the bill, indignantly denied the charges made.

BRYAN LOST OUT

He Will Now Fight for the $50,000 In Supreme Court.

New Haven, Conn., April 1.—A finding that a sealed letter in which Philo S. Bennett expressed a wish that $50,000 should be given to Wm. Jennings Bryan and his family was not a part of the last will of Mr. Bennett was returned by the jury in the superior court in the trial of Mr. Bryan's appeal from the decision of the probate court. This finding, which upholds the decision of the probate court was given in accordance with instructions to the jury from Judge Gager who presided at the superior court trial.

Judge Gager's ruling on a question which never before came directly before the courts of Connecticut decided that the sealed letter could not be admitted as evidence in the trial. The decision followed arguments which had occupied most of the two preceding days of the session regarding the admissibility of this letter as evidence, counsel for Mr. Bryan appealing from the decision of Judge Gager that it could not be admitted as evidence practically concluded the proceedings in the superior court, and the jury was accordingly directed to bring in a verdict against Mr. Bryan. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court by Mr. Bryan's counsel on the ground that the letter should be admitted as a part of an established trust.

Rejoicing Ended In Death.

East St. Louis, Ill., April 1.—After contesting his wife's will, which cut him off with $50 and left $50,000 to European relatives, and winning the suit two weeks ago for $25,000, John Thorneberg rejoiced to such an extent that he broke his leg and is dead of blood poisoning. There being no children the $50,000 estate will go to relatives here and in Europe.

Wabash Eight Miles Wide.

Princeton, Ind., April 1.—The Wabash river is eight miles wide west of here. One hundred and sixty people were rescued last night and are camped in the fair grounds. Forty thousand acres of wheat will be lost in southwestern Indiana. The river is rising one-half inch an hour.

May Break Up the Gang.

Chicago, April 1.—An organized gang for the systematic smuggling of Chinese into the United States by way of the Canadian border is believed to have been disrupted by the arrest here of three Chinese, who, it is said, were active agents of the organization.

"THE YELLOW PERIL"

Evidence That Indiana Democrats Are Trying to Head It Off.

Indianapolis, April 1.—The great stand being made for Judge Alton B. Parker of New York for the Democratic presidential nomination at the next national convention in opposition to William Randolph Hearst is just now giving the Republicans something to talk about. The fact that Democratic leaders everywhere have seen fit to announce their preference for Parker when hitherto they have held back saying they thought it too early to make any prediction can mean only one thing in the minds of Republican managers and that is that the leaders are beginning to fear that Hearst will be a more dangerous quantity before the national convention than anyone has dreamed. A month ago no one even considered Hearst a possibility so far as capturing the Indiana delegation was concerned. Now, however, the efforts are not being directed so much toward Parker as they are to head off Hearst. Knowing that the only way to fight an aggressive candidate is to have another man known as his opponent the leaders have taken up Parker as the man to beat Hearst. The talk of instructing for Parker probably will never be carried into effect unless the Hearst boomers are strong enough to make such action necessary. If the Hearst movement can be headed off without difficulty there will be no instructions for anybody. If Hearst makes enough showing, however, to make it necessary to have an active candidate the leaders are prepared to go ahead and insist that the delegates shall be instructed for the jurist to prevent any chance of tampering with the delegates after they are chosen. As the Republicans are only hoping Hearst will be nominated because of the "easy pickings" they will have, it is no wonder they are pleased at every evidence of popularity on the part of the editor.

Indianapolis is now totally without natural gas supply. The managers of the Consumers gas trust have put their threat into effect and this morning cut off the supply. As the Indianapolis gas company shut off the gas months ago people will have no chance to use the convenient fuel in the future. The season is so far advanced now that the shutting off of the gas will make little real difference except to people who have been using it in cooking stoves. They all had sufficient notice, however, that the gas was to be discontinued to give them an opportunity to lay in a supply of other fuel. Most of them have done so and there will be no suffering. After the fourteen or more years the city has enjoyed the blessing of the natural fuel, even though the service has not been satisfactory in cold weather for three years, it will be a great loss, nevertheless.

The Brown trial has overshadowed all other matters of local interest in the last few days. The court room loungers have been given a great taste of excitement in the cross questioning of witnesses by W. A. Ketcham who is defending Brown. Mr. Ketcham has a great method of worrying witnesses by firing his questions at them with the rapidity of a gatling gun and with a shout that makes the bravest tremble. Some of the witnesses, however, have refused to be intimidated and some of the passages between attorney and witnesses have been exciting in the extreme. The browbeating went so far on two or three occasions when lawyer and the witnesses raised their voices in their anger until they could be heard for a block that Judge Anderson was forced to interfere.

Deadly Quarrel at Lizton.

Lizton, Ind., April 1.—Frank Shockley, twenty-five years old, killed his father-in-law, George Dodson, forty-two years old, after a dispute over the proceeds of their business. The two men had for some time been the owners of a poolroom, and they had failed to agree on a division of profits. The dispute became heated, and Dodson drew a revolver and attempted to shoot Shockley. Shockley defended himself with an iron bar, striking Dodson a blow over the head and crushing his skull. Dodson died in an hour. Shockley has not been arrested because of the general opinion that the killing was in self-defense.

Many Methodists Expected.

Muncie, April 1.—Preparations are nearly completed for what will probably be one of the largest meetings of Methodists ever held in Indiana—the North Indiana M. E. conference. The conference proper will begin Wednesday, April 6, and will continue through the following Monday and perhaps longer. Lodging for 1,000 visitors will be supplied by the Protestant churches of Muncie, and there will probably be as many more visitors who will obtain their own lodging.

Respite on a Technicality.

Chicago, April 1.—Harvey Van Dine, Peter Niedermeyer and Gustave Marx may not be hanged on April 22 for the murders for which they were convicted by a jury and sentenced to death. An error in pronouncing the sentence is likely to result in a legal battle, which may not end until settled by the supreme court.

May Break Up the Gang.

Chicago, April 1.—An organized gang for the systematic smuggling of Chinese into the United States by way of the Canadian border is believed to have been disrupted by the arrest here of three Chinese, who, it is said, were active agents of the organization.
